WELCOME TO NAUGATUCK VALLEY COM

Dear NVCC Donors and Friends,

Once again the Naugatuck Valley Community College Foundation had a very successful year. Thanks to you we were able to expand our fundraising and therefore our support of the talented students we were established to serve.

With the support of our donors, we were able to increase funding for important NVCC programs such as the NVCC Student Food Pantry and the NVCC Jobs on Campus program. The Jobs on Campus program provides much-needed income to students as well as mentoring and support. The NVCC Student Food Pantry continues to grow and to meet the needs of students and their families. Food insecurity remains a challenge in our community and interferes with students' ability to perform.

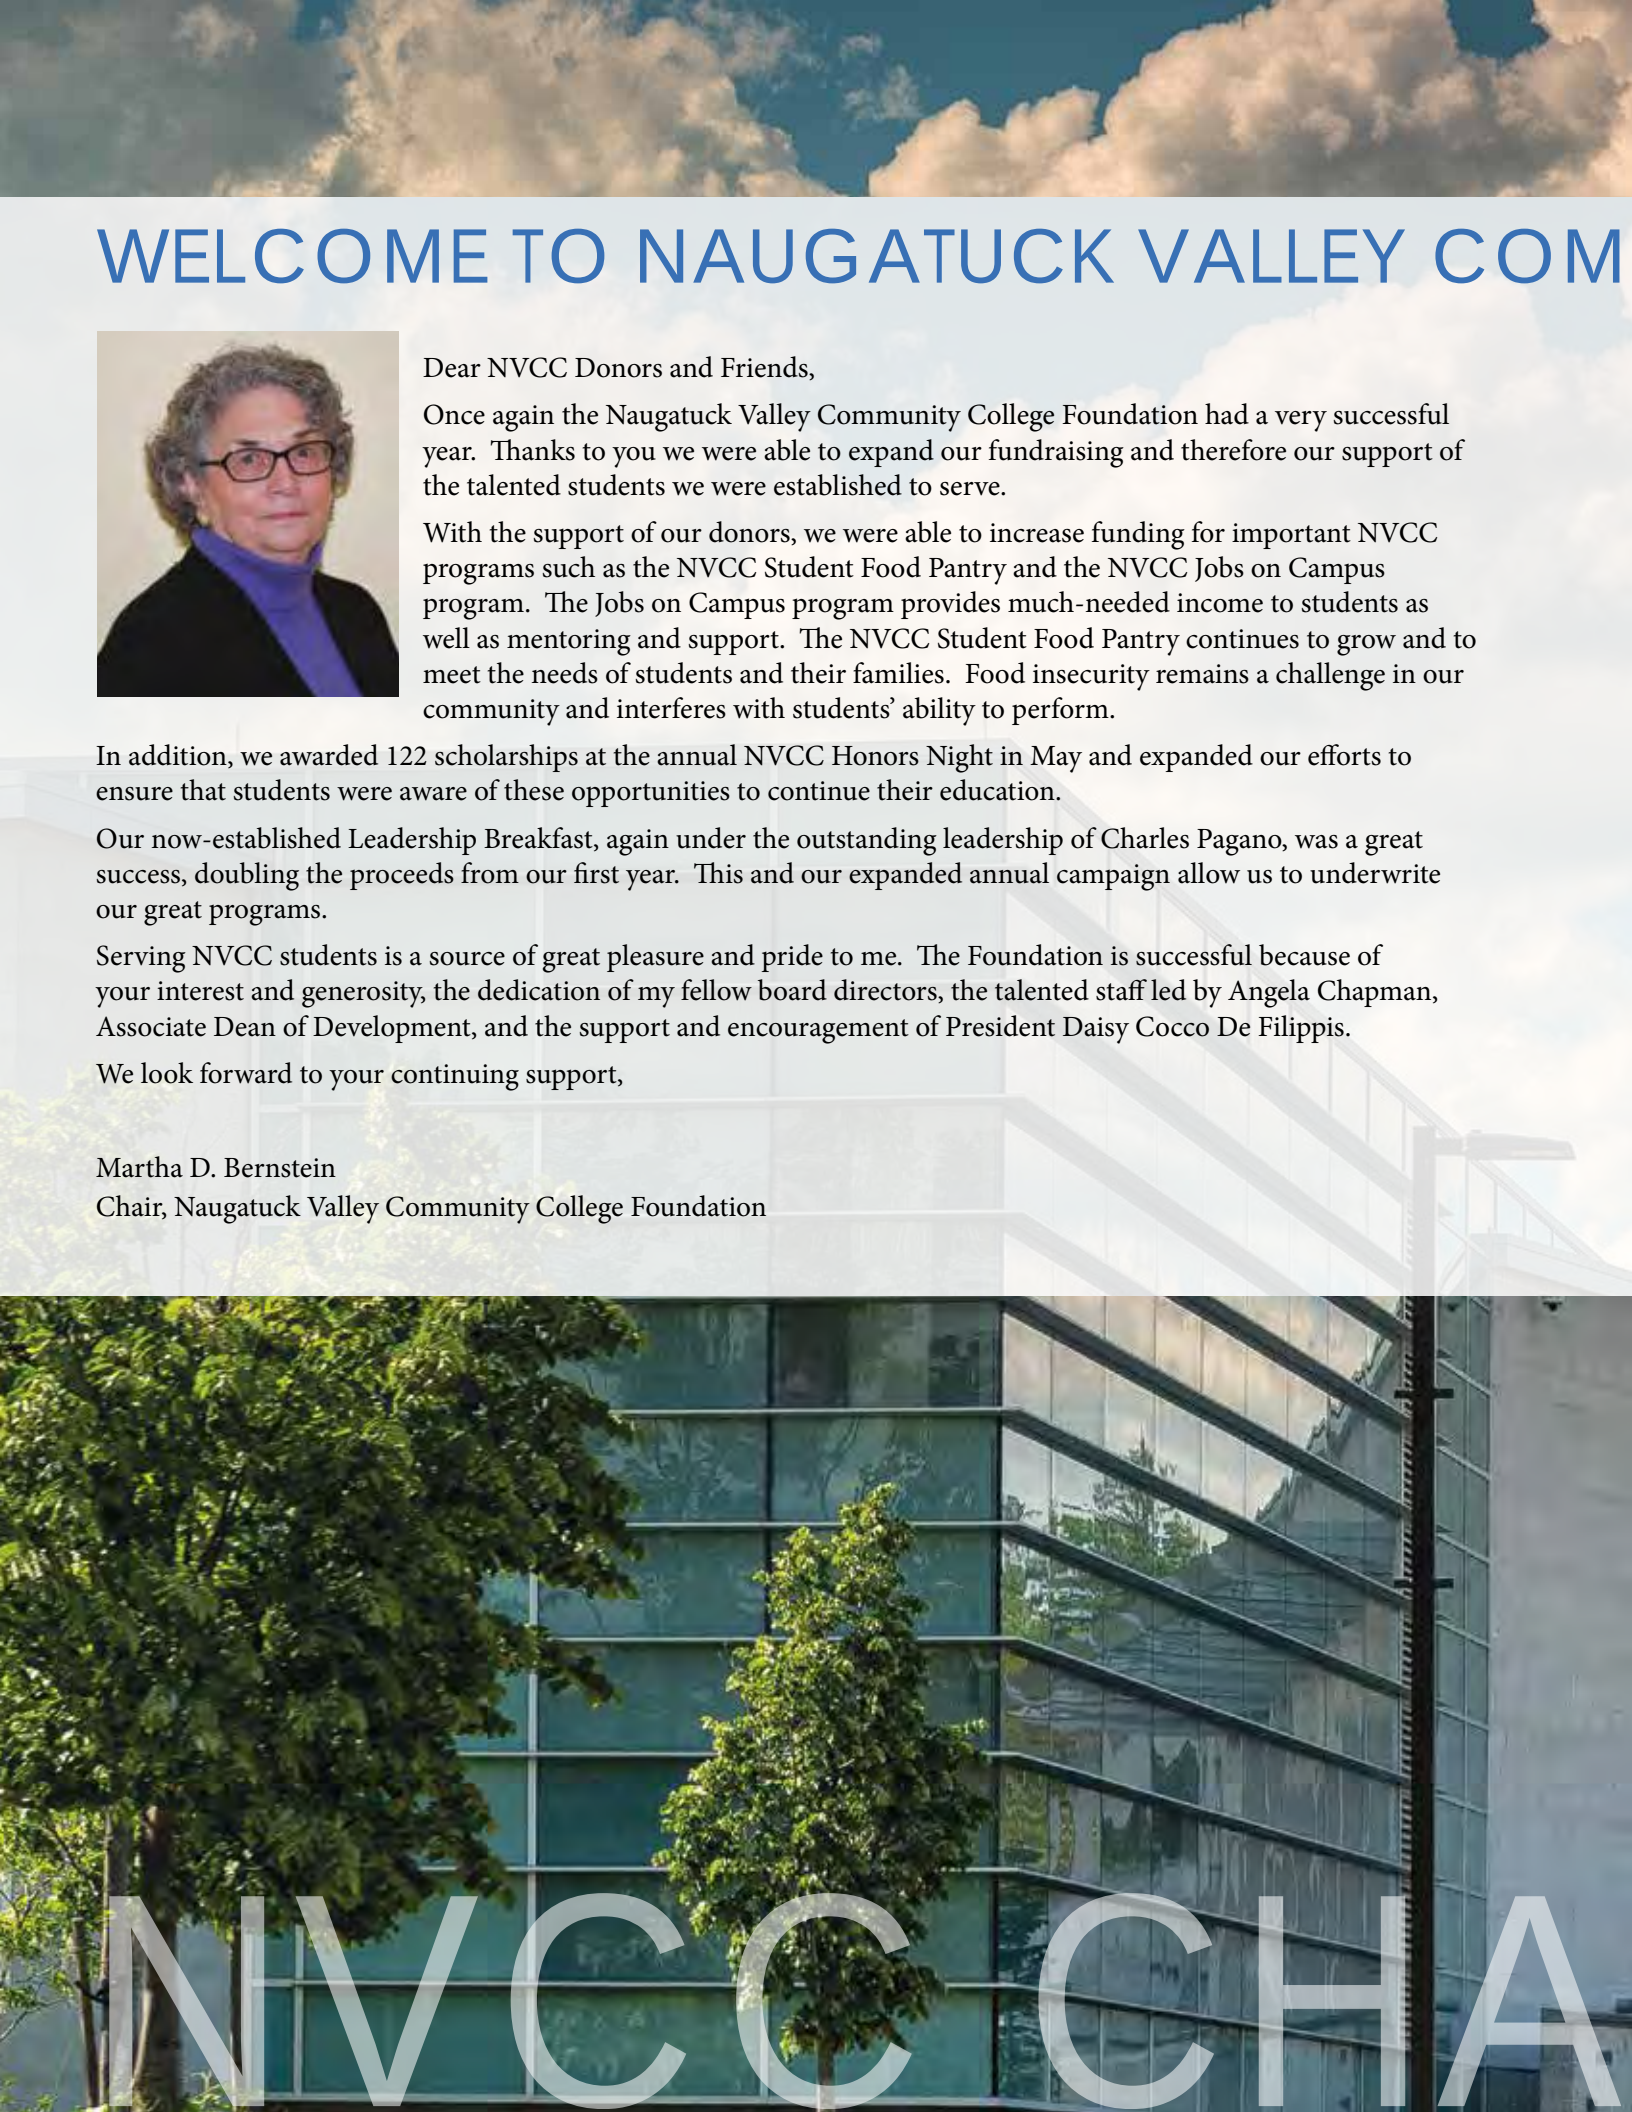

In addition, we awarded 122 scholarships at the annual NVCC Honors Night in May and expanded our efforts to ensure that students were aware of these opportunities to continue their education.

Our now-established Leadership Breakfast, again under the outstanding leadership of Charles Pagano, was a great success, doubling the proceeds from our first year. This and our expanded annual campaign allow us to underwrite our great programs.

Serving NVCC students is a source of great pleasure and pride to me. The Foundation is successful because of your interest and generosity, the dedication of my fellow board directors, the talented staff led by Angela Chapman, Associate Dean of Development, and the support and encouragement of President Daisy Cocco De Filippis.

We look forward to your continuing support,

Martha D. Bernstein
Chair, Naugatuck Valley Community College Foundation

NVCC CHA

MUNITY COLLEGE.

Dear Friends of NVCC,

I welcome the opportunity to say thank you, mil gracias, for your generous support of our students. Your investment in Naugatuck Valley Community College has been put to good use, supporting a growing number of students as they complete their studies and enter the workforce or transfer to a baccalaureate-granting institution.

NVCC has long served as the entry point to higher education for numerous underrepresented groups including first-generation and low-income college students, as well as students from underrepresented ethnic groups. Because of our work with our students and the communities we serve, we have received significant national distinctions including designation as a Hispanic Serving Institution and recognition by the U.S. Department of Education for our service to low-income students.

As I have shared before, the poet John Keats could not have said it better, "A thing of beauty is a joy forever." Your faith in the value of the potential in each of our students is indeed as beautiful and joyous a thing as one could ever contemplate.

Thank you for your friendship and your generous, ongoing support of NVCC and our talented students.

Mil gracias y bendiciones,

Daisy Cocco De Filippis, Ph.D.

President, Naugatuck Valley Community College

AWARDS 2018-19

NVCC CHANGES LIVES.

NVCC became the first community college in Connecticut to award a total of more than 1,000 associate degrees and certificates in 2012. This achievement was repeated for the eighth year in a row in 2019 when the College conferred 1,206 awards.

Since Academic Year 2007-2008, the College has seen a 103% growth in the number of graduates, a 112% increase in the number of male graduates and a 506% increase in Hispanic student graduates.

NVCC HIGHLIGHTS 2018-19

OCTOBER 2018

NVCC's Alumni Association celebrated Fall Semester with two stellar events: Inaugural Alumni Speaker Series and the Manufacturing Alumni Event.

The Alumni Association at Naugatuck Valley Community College kicked off the Fall 2018 semester with two popular events that engaged dozens of alumni, faculty, staff, and community members. On October 2, the Association hosted its inaugural speaker series in which four distinguished alumni discussed their paths to leading successful careers. Speakers included: Charles J. Boulrier, retired CEO of Ion Bank; Kathryn Luria, Senior Vice President of Community Affairs and the Director of Philanthropy for Webster Bank; Jim O'Rourke, CEO of the Greater Waterbury YMCA; and Geraldo Reyes Jr., a Connecticut State Representative for the 75th District. The event featured an opening reception sponsored by a grant received from the Connecticut Community Foundation.

On October 11, the Association held a gathering at Waterbury's Brassworks Brewing Company, well-attended by manufacturing alums, current students, faculty and staff, and industry colleagues. Attendees enjoyed the evening where they were able to reunite with classmates, network, and enjoy local craft beers and food while raising funds for NVCC students. Sponsors of the event included: Vision Engineering, Inc., Anomatic Corporation, Trumpf, Inc., Fryer Machine Systems, Inc., EDAC Technologies, LLC, Smaller Manufacturers Association of CT (SMA), DACRUZ Manufacturing, Mattatuck Industrial Scrap Metal, Inc., and Aldine Metal Products.

NOVEMBER 2018

United Way grant supported NVCC's Student Food Pantry.

Thanks to a recent United Way grant awarded to the NVCC Foundation, the "grab and go" service at the NVCC Student Food Pantry was supported for Academic Year 2018-19.

"By supporting students facing food insecurity with free food while on the NVCC campus, United Way is helping them to remain in school and earn their degrees by removing this barrier to their education," said Kristen Jacoby, President and Chief Professional Officer of the United Way of Greater Waterbury.

DECEMBER 2018

NVCC hosted second annual Donor Appreciation reception.

NVCC President Daisy Cocco De Filippis, Ph.D., and the college's Foundation Board of Directors hosted a well-attended Donor Appreciation reception on the evening of December 12. The event was held in the Waterbury Hospital and Saint Mary's Hospital Community Room in Founders Hall. Attendees enjoyed musical entertainment by Gil Harel, Ph.D., Associate Professor of Music. Charles E. Pagano Jr., Vice Chair of the Foundation emceed the event.

Participants heard from Marlon Bramwell, a Computer Information Systems student at NVCC. Thanks to the generosity of donors, Bramwell holds a part-time position in the IT Department as part of the college's Student Jobs on Campus program. Marlon is learning valuable skills that will help him launch his career upon graduation.

MARCH 2019

NVCC held second annual 5K food pantry fundraiser.

Almost 100 community members, students, faculty, and staff laced up their sneakers on March 24 to run and walk, raising more than $3,000 for NVCC's Student Food Pantry.

Beginning at Founders Hall on NVCC's Waterbury Campus, the course allowed participants to run or walk 1.55 miles (2.5 K) or complete the loop twice for a 5K. Trophies for top female and male winners were given out in addition to medals for first, second, and third place by age division.

Sponsors of the event included: Naugatuck Valley Gastroenterology Consultants, Subway, Saint Mary's Hospital / Trinity Health.

NVCC hosted Women in Science seminar.

The Women in STEM annual seminar is sponsored by the Scott Lawrence Pond Memorial Fund through the Naugatuck Valley Community College Foundation. The seminar provides a yearly forum in which local women scientists share perspectives and experiences about the personal and intellectual journeys they undertook to get where they are today.

Held on Wednesday, March 27, 2019, NVCC students and nearly 30 local high school girls attended to learn more about STEM career paths.

APRIL 2019

NVCC's Foundation hosted second annual Leadership Breakfast Supporting Education.

NVCC's Foundation hosted its second annual Leadership Breakfast Supporting Education on Thursday, April 25, 2019 at La Bella Vista, Waterbury. More than 200 registered guests raised over $30,000 to support students. The program featured a keynote address by Adam Grossman, Executive Vice-President & Chief Marketing Officer of the Boston Red Sox.

Charles E. Pagano, Jr. and Charles J. Boulter, III, Waterbury natives, alumni of NVCC and Co-Chairs of this year's event partnered with the NVCC Foundation to support the success of NVCC students and future leaders of the community.

The Honorable Neil M. O'Leary, Mayor, City of Waterbury provided remarks about his experience at NVCC where he serves as Chairman of the NVCC Regional Advisory Council.

Sponsors of the event included: George Bodenheimer, Charles E. Pagano, Jr., Vision Engineering, Blasius Chevrolet and Cadillac, DaSilva Realty, RBC Bearings, A.I. TEK Instruments, LLC, Ametek, Inc., Boston Red Sox, Chuck and Beth Boulter, Brass Axe Capital, President Daisy Cocco De Filippis & Nunzio De Filippis, ESPN, Marion Manufacturing and Webster Private Bank.

Proceeds from the annual breakfast support the educational needs of NVCC students, including scholarships, emergency services, and the NVCC Student Food Pantry.

MAY 2019

Naugatuck Valley Community College launched a new opportunity for students in western Connecticut through the Praxair Skills Pipeline™ workforce development program.

With a donation from Praxair Inc., a subsidiary of Linde, with corporate offices in Danbury, the Praxair Skills Pipeline™ focuses on preparing workers for careers in advanced manufacturing. Students selected for the program will receive full scholarships covering tuition, books and classroom materials.

Funded with a donation of more than $225,000 to the NVCC Foundation, this community engagement program is an example of Praxair's continued commitment to developing a robust skilled trades pipeline.

Scholarships to Students

The NVCC Foundation awarded 122 scholarships at the annual Honors Night recognizing students for their leadership, academic excellence and service. Students, friends and families gathered to receive their awards and tell their stories at the May 21 event which was held on the Mainstage Theater of the College's Fine Arts Center. The scholarships are supported by endowments and fundraising efforts, including the very successful second annual Leadership Breakfast held on April 25. The total scholarships and awards represent a 43% increase from last year.

JUNE 2019

NVCC Foundation raised more than $3,000 at the Dr. Christopher Love Fundraising Breakfast.

The NVCC Foundation hosted the Dr. Christopher Love Fundraising Breakfast on June 29. More than $3,000 was raised from the breakfast which will go towards a $10,000 goal to create a permanent endowment at the Foundation. The endowment will be used to support African American students at NVCC who demonstrate leadership and academic excellence.

Nearly 100 community members, friends and family of Love, and several elected officials including Representative Jahana Hayes (D-CT 5th District) attended the breakfast which was held in the Community Room in NVCC's Founders Hall.

Vice Chair of the NVCC Foundation Board of Directors Donates a Legacy Gift

Charles E. Pagano, Jr., Vice Chair of the NVCC Foundation Board of Directors, an NVCC alumnus and former executive of ESPN, donated $25,000 to the NVCC Foundation for an endowment to support scholarships for students majoring in a STEM discipline at NVCC. Mr. Pagano is committed to creating opportunities for NVCC students to achieve their goals. His legacy gift will have a lasting benefit to current and future NVCC students.

Naugatuck Valley Community College Foundation awarded grant to support at-risk women

The Women's Giving Circle at the Connecticut Community Foundation awarded the NVCC Foundation a grant in the amount of $10,000, to support the NVCC Women's LEAP (Lead, Empower, Achieve, Persist) program. This new program was designed to support the needs of at-risk women who, despite overwhelming challenges, have demonstrated resilience and tenacity in furthering their education. The program enhances their college experience with workshops and mentorships that help improve retention to graduation, and prepare these women for meaningful careers.
